D-DAY NORMANDY
LAND OF LIBERTY
71ST ANNIVERSARY
Dear Tulane Traveler:

We extend a special invitation to you to join us for this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to commemorate the 71st anniversary of the historic D-Day landings during this Celtic Lands voyage. By exclusive arrangement, walk the hallowed beaches of Normandy, France, with Dwight David Eisenhower II, grandson of General and President Dwight D. Eisenhower, and meet Lord Charles Spencer-Churchill, cousin of British Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill. Both Professor Eisenhower and Lord Spencer-Churchill will join us for a portion of the cruise to lecture and share their personal insights about two of the most influential figures of the 20th century.

From the coast of France to the British Isles, our Celtic Lands itinerary explores the lands and seas traversed by the Iron Age tribes known as the Celts, along with their enduring influence and the captivating historical legacies of more recent times. Their immeasurable contributions to the culture of Europe’s civilizations are surrounded in mystery, legend and folklore, and rooted in a wealth of art, science and mythology.

Cruise aboard the exclusively chartered, Five-Star, small ship M.S. Le Boreal to explore cities, villages and islands that abound with living Celtic heritage, calling at ports accessible only to a small ship.

Journey from northern France and the beaches of Normandy through the English Channel and into the waters of the Celtic and Irish Seas to view the treasures of Celtic heritage in Dublin, Republic of Ireland, and follow in the footsteps of medieval and modern princes in North Wales. Our voyage calls on the seldom-visited, charming seaside town of Ayr, the birthplace of poet Robert Burns and home to the impressive, 16th-century Culzean Castle—dubbed the “Scottish White House” when Dwight D. Eisenhower stayed here during his presidency. Continue on to admire the austere beauty of Scotland’s Highlands and cruise among its misty, legend-haunted Inner Hebridean Islands.

This extraordinary 71st anniversary D-Day commemoration and exclusive travel offering is an excellent value and is not available to the general public. We encourage you to reserve now as capacity is limited, and year after year, this program sells out quickly!

“No place overseas holds more significance for Americans and Canadians than the landing sites for the Normandy invasion on D-Day, June 6, 1944. Sharing the insights of my grandfather, Dwight Eisenhower, and walking these hallowed grounds where our allied troops, in his words, successfully assured ‘the elimination of Nazi tyranny...and security for ourselves in a free world,’ was a personal highlight. This Celtic Lands travel program is indeed a cruise rich in history, set amid the breathtaking beauty of the British Isles and the Normandy coastlines.”

—David Eisenhower,
June 2014
The Celts, whose civilization spanned two thousand years, had no written history, no written language and no prevailing ethnic unity. They never built an empire nor founded a centralized state, yet at the height of their power, in the third century B.C., the Celts’ domain extended from the Iberian Peninsula to the Black Sea and from the Mediterranean Sea to the North Sea. Today, the Celts are most associated with the heritage, cultural identity and national consciousness of Ireland, although their roots run deep in England, Wales, Scotland and Normandy, France, where Celtic dialects formed the original languages.

Built astride the River Liffey, Ireland’s historic capital has retained its rich heritage of Georgian architecture while confidently playing a major role in the New Europe. Enjoy an overview tour of the city; stroll through the stately quadrangles of Trinity College; view the incandescent illuminations of the ninth-century Book of Kells; and, by special arrangement, visit the infamous 18th-century Kilmainham Gaol (prison) that held many leaders of the five Irish rebellions, now a museum and great introduction to 18th-, 19th- and 20th-century Irish history.

The afternoon is at leisure. Walk along colorful Grafton Street, savor a pint of Enjoy traditional Irish music and dance aboard the ship this evening.

Holyhead, Wales/ Caernarfon Castle
Monday, May 25
From Holyhead, travel across the Isle of Anglesey and over the Menai Strait to North Wales, one of the cradles of Celtic culture. Here, the people hold fast to the old ways and Welsh remains their mother tongue.

Visit beautiful Bodnant Garden, one of the finest examples of 19th-century Victorian landscape artistry. Enjoy lunch in a local restaurant and listen to a stirring private choir performance of Welsh hymns.

Tour the imposing Caernarfon Castle, an impregnable 13th-century fortress built by Edward I of England as a defense against the marauding Welsh. Following tradition in place since 1301, Queen Elizabeth II invested the future heir to the British throne, her son Charles, as “Prince of Wales” at Caernarfon in 1969.

En route to the ship, view the beautiful, glacier-sculpted peaks and valleys of the Snowdonia Mountains in the distance.

Ayr, Scotland
Tuesday, May 26
Dock in the charming seaside town of Ayr, birthplace of Scotland’s favorite son, Robert Burns, Romantic Movement pioneer and poet, and lyricist of the perennial favorite, “Auld Lang Syne.”

Tour the Robert Burns Birthplace Museum, situated on 10 acres of beautiful countryside. It comprises the most comprehensive and important Burns collection in the world, including the cottage where he was born in 1759 and Brig O’ Doon, the bridge immortalized in his famous poem “Tam O’ Shanter.” Then, explore the impressive 16th-century Culzean Castle, a National Trust for Scotland property once owned by the ancient Scottish Clan Kennedy. Tour the museum dedicated to General and President Dwight D. Eisenhower, who visited the castle once during his presidency—when it was dubbed the “Scottish White House,” and later during his retirement, when he enjoyed painting and walking in Culzean’s peaceful, beautiful gardens.

Portree, Isle of Skye/Dunvegan
Wednesday, May 27
Skye, dubbed “the Winged Island” after its birdlike shape, is the largest and one of the most scenic of the Inner Hebrides.

Visit Dunvegan Castle, the seat of the powerful Clan MacLeod since 1270, built atop a rocky promontory overlooking the sea.

Tour Dunvegan’s richly appointed public rooms and view the Fairy Flag, a silken banner that legend claims had the power to save the clan from defeat on three occasions. View the castle’s lush gardens, ablaze with azaleas and rhododendrons.

Lord Charles Spencer-Churchill will present a lecture about his cousin, the legendary British Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill, this afternoon.

Tobermory, Isle of Mull/Isle of Iona
Thursday, May 28
Go ashore at the sheltered port of Tobermory, where vividly painted houses are nestled between the hills and the harbor.
After free time, visit the 13th-century Duart Castle, the ancestral home of the Clan Maclean, and have lunch in the castle’s tea room.

Ferry across the Sound of Iona to the neighboring Hebridean Isle of Iona, birthplace of Scottish Christianity. In 563 A.D., the Irish monk Columba founded a monastery here, where scribes would spend their entire lives painstakingly copying and illuminating religious tracts and transcribing ancient Celtic sagas into written form, preserving a record of oral bardic tradition. In later years, Iona became the burial place of Scotland’s kings, including Duncan and Macbeth. At Iona Abbey, stroll through the serene, restored monastery and see the churchyard’s intricate Celtic crosses.

Dwight David Eisenhower II, grandson of General and President Dwight D. Eisenhower, is a noted historian of World War II and the Cold War. His 1986, 900-page bestseller, Eisenhower: At War 1943-1945, was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize in history.

Eisenhower is Senior Fellow of the Foreign Policy Research Institute and a Public Policy Fellow at the Annenberg School of Communication and the School of Arts and Sciences at the University of Pennsylvania, where he teaches “Communication and the Presidency.”

His lectures will feature:
- Operation Overlord—the concept, planning and personalities behind the D-Day invasion; and
- Triumph and Tragedy—big-picture consequences of the Allied Forces’ Normandy landings.

Lord Charles Spencer-Churchill, cousin of Sir Winston Churchill and brother of the current Duke of Marlborough, is a noted speaker and host of events at his ancestral home, Blenheim Palace, where Winston Churchill was born in 1874. Lord Charles was born in wartime London on July 13, 1940, and spent many of his formative years at Blenheim.

During World War II, the lives of those who lived and worked at Blenheim changed forever. Members of staff were trained to be Air Raid Precaution wardens, windows were blacked out and roof beams were fireproofed. In 1952, Lord Charles left for the iconic campus of Eton College and later attended Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee.

With his wife Elizabeth Jane Wyndham, Lord Charles has three children. His lectures will highlight:
- Reflections of Winston Churchill—a 50th anniversary commemoration; and
