Out-of-State Tax-Exempt Organizations Doing Business in Colorado

General Information
Colorado allows out-of-state tax-exempt organizations to use the exemption certificate issued by their home state taxing authorities when doing business with Colorado vendors on an occasional basis. No advance notice to the Colorado Department of Revenue is required.

Out-of-state tax-exempt organizations are allowed to make sales tax-exempt purchases upon providing the vendor with a tax exemption number or some other documentation of tax-exempt status from another state.

A titled representative of the organization should be prepared to assume full legal responsibility for the organization's tax-exempt purchases in Colorado should the department later determine that sales tax should have been paid. The representative will be required to sign an affidavit attesting to the organization's tax-exempt status and that the item or service purchased meets both requirements outlined below. The vendor might also request positive identification from the representative.

Limits to the sales tax exemption
Tax-exempt organizations may purchase otherwise taxable goods and services without paying Colorado state-administered sales taxes only if both of the following requirements are met:

1. Payment is made from the organization's funds and no reimbursement will be made to the organization through direct payment, collection or donation from any person(s) for the use or consumption of the goods or services; and

2. The items or services purchased are used in conjunction with your organization's normal religious, charitable, educational or governmental activities.

If the item purchased does not meet both the above requirements, the vendor is legally obligated to charge the organization sales tax.

If a dispute arises between the vendor and the organization as to whether a sale is taxable, the Department of Revenue requires the vendor to charge the tax and the purchasing organization to pay it. The organization may file a "Claim for Refund" (DR 0137), which is available upon request from the Department of Revenue. If the department subsequently determines that the sale was nontaxable, the organization will receive a refund for taxes paid.
