Project 1: Gender and Judging Blog

Objective: Manage a blog for an international group focusing on gender and the judiciary in various academic fields. Therefore allowing them to come together and have knowledge of what is going on in their field around the world.

Method: Obtained web server account and downloaded Wordpress to use as a template for the blog. It utilizes a customizable theme and various widgets.

Project 2: Newcomb Scholars Blog

Objective: Create a space for students in the Newcomb Scholars program to reflect on and share experiences they have in the program and at Tulane as a scholar.

Method: Obtained web server account and downloaded Wordpress to use as a template for the blog. It utilizes a customizable theme and various widgets.