NEWCOMB
Newcomb College Institute of Tulane University

Educating undergraduate women for leadership in the 21st century

tulane.edu/newcomb
What is the Newcomb College Institute?

Newcomb College Institute (NCI) is a dynamic center that supports women’s education at Tulane University. Through interdisciplinary programming emphasizing academic enrichment, career preparedness, and leadership development, NCI offers an array of opportunities, including:

- Thirteen Newcomb student organizations
- Student Grants for undergraduate women interested in doing community service, conducting independent research or attending academic conferences
- Internationally renowned speakers to talk to students about their careers and the exciting work they’re doing in science, business, the arts, politics and beyond
- Opportunities to learn about new media through Collat Media Internships
- Events to network with women alums in your chosen field

Learn more by sending an e-mail to newcombleads@tulane.edu or visit tulane.edu/newcomb.
Check Out the Nadine Vorhoff Library

The Vorhoff Library wants to be your study partner this year! The Nadine Vorhoff Library is a unique space for students to study and explore a variety of topics including women’s and gender studies. The library is dedicated to collecting books and journals on women’s history and the education of women. Please stop by to see the special collections, such as the Culinary books, the Zines, the Marla Custard (NC ’91) LGBTQ collection, and the graphic novels.

The library has a vast array of titles including many contemporary authors and longtime favorites. Non-fiction subjects range from women and technology to eco-feminism. With so many titles to choose from, you are sure to discover a new favorite.

Librarian Bea Calvert can also assist you with finding articles in journals, Newcomb Archives requests and Interlibrary Loans.

Library Hours:
Monday – Thursday, 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.
Friday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Saturday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
Want more information? Contact Bea Calvert at bcalvert@tulane.edu.

200 Caroline Richardson Hall

tulane.edu/newcomb/vorhoff.cfm
What are you doing for lunch this Friday?

Join us on Fridays in the Anna Many Lounge in the Caroline Richardson Building for this lecture paired with lunch from a local restaurant. Talks usually last from 12-1 p.m. This lecture series provides students a chance to learn more about academic disciplines that differ from their major area of study in an informal setting. Check us out online for this semester's schedule of speakers.