ANNE BRADEN: SOUTHERN PATRIOT
Monday, March 11, 2013
6pm

An inquiry into the extraordinary if largely unsung life of Anne Braden, organizer, agitator, Southerner, journalist, feminist, teacher and mentor. Braden's reflections on the history and significance of six decades of racial justice organizing is interspersed with commentary from civil rights leaders, historians, community organizers, educators, environmental advocates, friends and foes.

Presented in conjunction with the Southern Labor Studies Association Conference.

IT WAS RAPE
Monday, April 8, 2013
4pm

Rape is wrong, illegal, reprehensible—and yet still tragically common. In this film, eight women tell their diverse personal stories of sexual assault, from a Midwesten teenager trying alcohol for the first time to a Native American woman gradually coming to terms with her abusive childhood. Ultimately, these stories shed light on how this epidemic affects us all.
