Appendix A

Timeline of U.S. Family Planning Policies

1984:  Reagan administration announced a new policy for family planning assistance restricting the abortion-related activities of foreign NGOs at the United Nations International Conference on Population in Mexico City.

1993:  Clinton administration abolishes the Mexico City Policy/Global Gag Rule by executive order.

1999:  Republican Congress re-enacts the Mexico City Policy/Global Gag Rule through one-year Appropriations Act.

2000:  President Clinton and Congress agree to abolish the Mexico City Policy/Global Gag Rule

2001:  Bush II Administration re-enacts the Mexico City Policy/Global Gag Rule