Emily Schoenbaum Community Development Grants
& NAA Community Grants
Spring 2014

The Emily Schoenbaum Community Development Grants Program seeks to encourage and support projects that will benefit the lives of women and girls, particularly those in the New Orleans area. Preference may be given to organizations with whom we may develop future internship or service learning partnerships. The Emily Schoenbaum Community Development Grants Program was founded in 1999 by Emily Schoenbaum, a 1988 graduate of Newcomb College, and is administered by the Newcomb College Institute. Grants of up to $2,000 will be awarded.

The Newcomb Alumnae Association Community Grants Program seeks to encourage and support projects that will benefit the lives of women and children, particularly those in the New Orleans area. Preference will be given to organizations affiliated with a Newcomb alumna. The grants program began in 2012 and is administered by the Newcomb College Institute and the Newcomb Alumnae Association. Grants of up to $1,500 will be awarded.

Who May Apply
Individuals or nonprofit, IRS tax-exempt organizations in Louisiana are eligible to apply. Preference will be given to applications that involve community organizations. Faculty, students, and alumnae are encouraged to apply for work they are doing in the community.

Grant Awards
The grant programs will make awards of up to $1,500 or $2,000 for project-related costs such as project materials, travel, clerical support, and the purchase of research materials such as tape recorders, electronic media, film and tapes.

How to Apply
There is one application for both grants programs. To apply for funding, please submit the following materials to Laura Wolford at lwolford@tulane.edu by 5pm on April 15, 2014:
