FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14, 5-6 PM
Interview with TUSPHTM’s Dr. David Seal on radio station 102.3 WHIV-LP. Tune in to hear about National Health Education Week events, the field of health education and communication, and Dr. Seal’s research in sexual health promotion and violence prevention. Stream at whivfm.org

MONDAY, OCTOBER 17, 12-1 PM
Webinar: Action Plan for Health Disparities. Sponsored by SOPHE, this webinar will highlight how health equity is achieved through the strategic engagement of public health, community-based organizations, and multi-sector partners. To register, go to http://bit.ly/2dvi0Ds

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1-2 PM
Webinar: Utilizing Partnerships Between School-Based Health Centers and Schools to Advance Student and School Employee Health. Sponsored by SOPHE, this webinar features staff from the School Based Health Alliance’s Hallways to Health initiative, which aims to build the capacity and population health focus of school-based health centers. To register, go to http://bit.ly/2dvi0Ds

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 20, 5:30 - 6:30 PM
Panel: This Could Be You! Careers in Health Education and Communication: Anna Many Lounge, Caroline Richardson Building, Uptown Campus. Hear from a panel of TUSPHTM’s very own alumni about the diversity of health education and communication career paths and provide academic and professional advice to students based on their experiences. Dinner will be served.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21, 9 AM-12 PM
Open Office Hours with Dr. Alyssa Lederer
Tidewater 22nd Floor, Office #2200-54
Stop by for coffee, breakfast, and a casual conversation about graduate school, possible career paths, and any public health topic.