

Graduate Student Annual Report Form
Department of Earth and Environmental Sciences

Due Date: September 1

Student's Name: _____ E-mail: _____

Advisor's Name: _____

First Enrollment: Year _____ Semester _____

Current Support: TA _____ RA _____ Fellowship _____ Other _____
If other, please describe:

What degree are you expecting?

Ph. D. Qualifying Examination: Anticipated date or date taken/outcome. _____

Have you organized your thesis committee? _____

If you are a TA, give the courses and sections to which you were assigned this academic year:

How many course credits have you completed toward the degree?

Completed _____ In progress _____

List the courses you have taken this year:

What is the title (or topic) of your dissertation or master's thesis project?

Briefly describe the progress you have made toward completion of your dissertation or thesis during the past year:

List all grant and fellowship applications for which you have applied during the past year, and indicate whether each is pending, declined, or funded:

List each of the conferences you have attended during the past year, giving the name of the sponsoring organizations, the location, and the date of the meeting. If you made a presentation (oral or poster) at any of the meetings, list the presentations as well, including all authors and the title for each presentation, and whether it was an oral presentation or a poster:

List all of your publications for the past year in standard bibliographic format:

List any invited presentations you have made at other institutions:

List other contributions to the Department (e.g., committee service, course/lab development, student organization):

List any honors or awards you have received during the past year: