Attention students who declared their minor PRIOR to FALL 2019. If you want to follow the new curriculum: You MUST email Dr. Laurie O’Brien, lobrien2@tulane.edu.

---

INTRODUCTORY PSYCHOLOGY (3 credits): 1000 or 1100*

CHOOSE AT LEAST ONE COURSE FROM 3 OF THE 4 CLUSTER AREAS:

- Biological Psychology (3 credits):
  - 3300 (Brain and Behavior) or 3680 (Comparative Animal Behavior) or 3700 (Evolution and Psych)

- Developmental Psychology (3 credits):
  - 3210 (Child Psych) or 3390 (Adolescent Psych)

- Cultural, Personality, and Social Psychology (3 credits):
  - 3010 (Personality Psych) or 3310 (Intro to African American Psych) or 3430 (Intro to Social Psych)

- Clinical Applications and Assessment (3 credits):
  - 3180 (Testing and Measurement) or 3200 (Educational Psych) or 3330 (Abnormal Psych) or 3340 (Developmental Psychopathology)

---

AT LEAST ONE ADDITIONAL 3-CREDIT PSYC ELECTIVE at or above the 3000-level

---

- At least 15 credit hours in psychology
- At least 12 credit hours at or above the 3000-level
- No S/U courses counting towards the minor requirements
- No more than 8 transferred hours in PSYC counting toward the MINOR
- Psychology Grade Point Average at least 2.0 (including WF, UW, F grades)

---

*Students must receive a B or higher in PSYC 1100 to get credit towards the major requirements.

For Neuroscience majors: Because of the high degree of overlap between psychology and neuroscience courses, the requirements for a psychology minor is different for neuroscience majors. Please see the special checklist for neuroscience majors.