Dear New Student,

At the Office of Orientation and Student Transitions, we understand that as a first year student you may still have questions as you continue to adjust to life at Tulane. For this reason, we will be sending you 1st things first, a periodic e-newsletter highlighting helpful resources, upcoming events and important deadlines for first year students.

If you have any questions or suggestions for 1st things first, please send them to orientation.tulane.edu.

Sincerely,
Penny Wyatt, Director of Orientation and Student Transitions

Today!  6 - 7:15 p.m.,
Monday, Sept. 21, 2009
Kendall Cram Room, 2nd Floor Lavin Bernick Center

Presented by Monster.com, the job search website, this dynamic program will provide academic and personal success strategies and show you how to use work, volunteer, student activity and internship experiences to your advantage as you develop your career plans.

After the program, refreshments will be served and staff from the Career Services Center will be available with Tulane-specific resources to help you take the next steps to success.

Sponsored by the Tulane Career Services Center and the department of Orientation and Student Transitions with assistance from Phi Eta Sigma Freshman Honor Society.

Service Extravaganza and Fair
Wednesday, September 23, 11 a.m.—2 p.m.
Pocket Park, LBC

Come learn about the variety of service opportunities available to you at Tulane. Meet Community Partners, Student Organizations, and Tulane staff and learn about internships, international service programs, federal work study jobs, student-led projects, and much more. For more information, email Avery Brewton at abrewton@tulane.edu

Orientation and Student Transitions -Division of Student Affairs -Tulane University