

Langstream now has Lessons 1 and 2 on the computer (9-5-03). The audio tapes are keyed to the lab exercises to be found at the end of each part of each lesson.

These exercises are not all ideal, nor are all the words of the lesson to be found here – eg days of the week are missing. The best exercises are those with grammatical focus. I recommend listening to the whole set of each lesson once or twice, with my key at your side. Then go back later to the meatier ones or those with topics I've said are important.

Listening to these exercises can be very very useful, believe me.

Lesson 1.1 lab begins on p. 12. These are numbered with double Cyrillic letters to mark them as lab lessons.
